Office of the Dewan of Mysore.

NOTE.

Dated 7th February 1916 .

Anonymous petition bringing to notice that one K.Srinivasa Rao, a clerk of the Sagar Sub-Division Office, has taken leave and been working in the Vokkaligar Sangha Press for over three years.

Forwarded to the Secretary, General Department, (Efficiency Audit Branch).

The petition may be shown to the Financial Secretary also for any action he may wish to suggest in such cases.

It is usual to recirculate existing orders whenever there is a tendency to ignore them - in addition to the action taken in individual cases.

P.C. 321/2

Office of the Deputy Commissioner,
Chanda District,
Dated Chanda 15th April 1930.

Sir,

Referring to your P.C.No.47 dated the 10th January 1930 enquiring if the statement contained in an anonymous petition to the effect that an official of this district on leave is employed in the Vellalipur Sancha Press is true, I have to state that it has been ascertained from the owner of the Vellalipur Sancha press that one Mr. Premiswar Rao, Deputy Tahsildar of Tenali taluk, who is on long leave since the 10th inst, has been employed in the Vellalipur press, where he seems to have been obtained employment on job work.

The official was called upon to appear before me and explain his conduct. Copies of his explanation and of my order thereon are enclosed for information.

Yours truly,

[signature]

To
The Hon'ble Rao, Sri. P.A.Ramu,
Assistant Secretary to Government,
Bangalore.

The Deputy Commissioner,

Shimoga District.

Respected Sir,

With due reference to your order to explain why I was accorded employment in the Vakkaligara Sangha, Bangalore, I beg to state that though I was granted medical leave to begin with and could not get leave allowances in time and such allowance, though granted, was not enough to maintain myself and my family in Bangalore, which is a very costly place and especially with impaired health, and as I had to remain there for some time to recoup my health, I was necessitated to accept some job work that was offered to me in the Vakkaligara Sangha, which office was situate quite close to my abode. This I thought would in no way cause inconvenience to any Government work. If in spite of my above explanation I am found to have acted against the standing order of Government I beg I may be excused, as I have done anything wantonly. The period for which a small leave allowance was granted was for a time only - After which I have been on leave without allowances. Now, I have no connection whatever with the Vakkaligara Sangha.

I beg to remain,

Respected Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Sd/- T.Srinivasa Rao,

Revenue Amanta, Sorab Taluk.

In this connection I respectfully beg to add that after working for a number of years as Revenue Amanta in Shimoga and other taluks I was taken as a sub-proton Deputy Clerk in the District Engineer's office, Shimoga.- while doing duty as Deputy Clerk the District Police Head Clerk's place became vacant and I was ordered to act as Head clerk. This office I filled in for nearly two years: after which I was given sub-proton Deputy Clerk for nearly 6 months or so. When Mr.T.Srinivasa Rao assumed charge of the District, he reverted me to my former appointment in the Shimoga taluk. I worked there as a Revenue Amanta for nearly a year - when in connecti connection with some ~~xxxxxxxxxx~~ altercations between myself and the Sheristedar I was transferred to Sorab taluk as Revenue Sumasta on [illegible] Rs/-. After one month I was reduced to be made a Deputy Sumasta on [illegible] Rs/-. Having implicitly obeyed the Deputy Commissioner's orders I remained in Sorab for nearly 3 or 4 months, when I fell very ill. I had medical leave for a month and this leave was extended. Before my going to Sorab 5 % of my pay used to be deducted every month as per orders of the Talur Sub-Division officer and credited towards the arrears of Kandayam I had to pay for lands sold in Hittahalli village. Besides, I had to pay [illegible] Rs/- every month towards my premium. After the said deductions I get about 20 or 25 Rs in all after a lapse of one year and a half in the shape of allowances. Under these circumstances I respectfully beg I may be excused for accepting some temporary job work [illegible] my health permitted.

Yours Rs/- T. Sreenivasa Rao

Deputy Commissioner,

Hassan District.

O r d e r.

The Deputy Tahsildar's conduct constitutes a serious breach of discipline, but, having regard to the successive reverses and hardships he was put to in being reduced from a post on Rs.70/- to one of Rs.15/- and to the distressing pecuniary circumstances in which he was placed owing to his having to take leave on medical certificate and in view of the fact that he has now severed his connection with the Vokkaliyara Sangha Press and has undertaken to resign duty as Deputy Tahsildar within a week, the irregularity is condoned and he is posted to the Kollegal Taluk.
